Preface / Epigraph : 3rd January 1818 :
Record of career of Reverend John Noble Shipton B.D. discovered on the reverse front cover & front endpages of the above Burial Register, transcribed for Parish Record Purposes by A Hebden April 2021 :
The Reverend David Moncrieffe A:M: of Queens College, Oxford, was inducted into the Rectory of this Parish and Parish Church of Weston in Gordano, and appointed the Revd. John Noble Shipton B.D. of Balliol College, Oxford, Curate of the said Parish, March 12th 1818. At the Census taken in the year 1831 in conformity to the Act of the the 11th year of George the 4th (IV) there were found to be in the Parish of Weston in Gordano - 25 Inhabited Houses, occupied by 27 families and one House uninhabited; 13 of these families were employed in Agriculture and four in Trade. At the same timethere were found to be 10 other families, chiefly labouring people, and the total number of Males was 68 - of Females 56 - making together 124 - of which 40 Males were upwards of 20 years of age. There were Three Agricultural occupiers of the 1 st Class, and Six of the 2 nd Class and Twenty Three Labourers in Agriculture, all of whom, together with children, Male and Female are included in the above mentioned number of the poulation of the Parish, Log 124 -. J.M. Shipton B.D., Curate of Weston in Gordano.
Copy of the Appointment given to Charles Hack on his being chosen to fill the Office of Parish Clerk :
By there presents (their presence) be it known to all men whom it may concern, that I, John Noble Shipton, Bachelor of Divinity, Curate of the Parish & Parish Church of Weston in Gorano, in the Diocese of Bath & Wells, acting in the Name &, nominally n the Behalf of the Reverend David Stewart Moncrieffe, Master of Arts, Rector of the aforesaid Parish, do, in coformity to the Ecclesiastical & Civil Laws of the Realm of England, choose, nominate, & appoint, Charles Hack of the aforesaid Parish of Weston in Gordano, to perform the Office & Duties of Parish Clerk in the said Parish, in the room of John Kitchen deceased, being well assured, as well from personal knowledge as from the testimony of respectable Inhabitants of the honest conversation, & sufficiency in reading etc., of the aforementioned Charles Hack to enable him to discharge the requisite duties of the Office of Parish Clerk in the said Parish. And this is the Authority for the said Charles Hack to have and receive the Stipend, Fees, Dues, etc., belonging to the Office, without fraud or diminution, according to the custom of the Parish. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this sixteenth day of April in the Year of o Lord One Thousand eight Hundred and twenty one. (AD 1821).

Due to the 2no. Adjacent plots, nos. 42 & 43, illustrated on the Original Churchyard Plan dated 1923, clarification required, based on Note 2 above, noting as the Surname 'Weekes' is omitted from the Burial Register and the 'Other Names' being identical to the Alvis families above, a duplication could have occurred, the Surnames being Alvis, as the legible part of headstone. The only reference to John Weeks is in Serial Register of Graves, which could have been on the East facing headstone de-laminated side, although there is no reference to the surname "Alvis."

Reverend Rawdon Hautenville :
Paraphrased extract from the Benefice Parish Magazine, dated November 2020, P. Longman.
The Hautenville family were French Huguenots - Protestants who emigrated to avoid persecution, settling in Lisburn, Northern Ireland around 1680, his paternal Grandfather, an army officer, moved to Dublin, where he died in 1815 and Rawdon was probably born in there and his estate registered there when he died.The family seem to have been 'well to do', the male members serving either in the army or church, typical of such families.
Rawdon studied at Oxford and in 1858, was curate at St. Peter & St. Paul, Weston in Gordano, when his young wife died, aged 26 years. Reverend Rawdon donated the South Chancel window in her memory and the 15 years after retirement at the relatively young age of 57, donated an organ to St. Peter and St. Paul. He lived in Kensington, London, and continued his interest in 1895 and died, date unknown.
